

Combined NT Mango Timing Forecast
First flowering survey, 1 August 2005

Darwin Region: 89,000 trees, 19 farms
Katherine Region: 45,000 trees, 6 farms

Key Points from the first Mango Crop Forecast 1 August 2005

- Late September start to the season
- Low early volumes from Darwin and Katherine
- First production peak in mid-October
- Second production peak in first week November
- 1-2 weeks earlier than last year
- A major flowering in the Darwin region is now underway.
- Fruit set is still happening
- Update 1 September 2005