Hours: Mon - Fri 8.00am - 4.20pm

General Information: YAG meets monthly to discuss youth issues and to inform and advise Council of the issues and needs of young people in Darwin. YAG seeks to ensure equity and access of young people in Council procedures, resources and services. Each year, YAG also aims to stage a youth specific event, which is created for young people by young people.

YAG has places for 15 members aged between 12 - 20 years. An additional two places are reserved for members of the DARWWYN network. YAG also provides an opportunity for young people to develop skills in leadership, communication, public speaking, team building and civic affairs.

Recruitment for YAG membership is an ongoing process. For further information, contact the Youth Services Project Officer.
