

Invitation

2008 is the 60th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

The NT Anti-Discrimination Commission and the Multicultural Council of the NT invite you and your colleagues to celebrate with us.

Wednesday 10 December
4:30pm - 6:00pm

Darwin Wharf Precinct Function Centre

Guest speaker Ted Egan plus winners of the MCNT 2009 Harmony Calendar Poster competition announced.

Drinks and finger food provided

RSVP by 3 December to Karyn.jessop@nt.gov.au or call 8999 1461 for further information.

"It is our duty to ensure that these rights are a living reality -- that they are known, understood and enjoyed by everyone, everywhere. It is often those who most need their human rights protected, who also need to be informed that the Declaration exists -- and that it exists for them." Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon

