

PRESS RELEASE

HARMONY DAY

21 March 2008

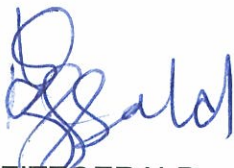

Harmony Day, 21 March 2008, is a time to highlight efforts by Australians from all backgrounds to bring us together and respect our differences.

Many NT schools organise Harmony Day promotions, but none deserve higher praise than tiny Dundee Beach School (2008 enrolment of 8) 140 kms south west of Darwin.

This year Dundee students will again paint the Dundee Community water tank with Harmony Day words, pictures and messages. Last year's attempt was washed away by unrelenting wet season rain.

NT Anti-Discrimination Commissioner Tony Fitzgerald congratulated the school for its enthusiasm.

'Bravo to the Dundee kids for embracing the harmony spirit in such a positive and productive way', he said.
