

MEDIA RELEASE

Acting Commissioner of Consumer Affairs

Consumer Affairs to move to new premises

6th July 2011

Acting Commissioner of Consumer Affairs, Sandra Otto, has announced that its Darwin office will be relocating to new premises at Casuarina from the 11th of July 2011.

The new street address will be 1st Floor, The Met Building, CasCom Centre, 13 Scaturchio St, Casuarina.

Ms Otto said, "The new centralised location will provide improved access for our clients and make it easier for drop in enquiries.

"It will be business as usual for Consumer Affairs. The relocation to Casuarina means that we will still be accessible to consumers and traders, and our door will be open to members of the public and businesses for advice and assistance in our new office from July 11th.

"We'll be working hard to make this transition as smooth as possible in terms of the impact it will have on clients, staff and services," Ms Otto said.

Telephone numbers will remain the same, however. the postal address will change. The new postal address will be PO Box 40946, Casuarina, NT 0811.

For more information, consumers and traders can contact Consumer Affairs on 1800 019 319 or email consumer@nt.gov.au.