A SUMMARY OF THE WORK DONE BY THE VARIOUS SECTIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT LEGAL SERVICES

The Legal Services output group delivers legal advice, representation and documentation in respect of Aboriginal Land, Litigation, Commercial and Policy development matters and an independent effective prosecutorial service. The Legal Services output group comprises the following:

SOLICITOR FOR THE NORTHERN TERRITORY

The Solicitor for the Northern Territory provides legal advice, representation and documentation to Government and is made up of the following divisions.

- The Aboriginal Land Division provides legal services to Government and client agencies in respect of Aboriginal land and native title matters. A significant proportion of the work involves representing the Northern Territory in matters before the High Court, Federal Court, Aboriginal Land Commissioner and the National Native Title Tribunal.
- The Commercial Division provides legal advice in areas such as mining, land management, revenue, development and infrastructure and any other related matters which have a significant impact on the interests of the Territory. The Division remains engaged with various major developments in the Northern Territory including the AustralAsia Railway and the waterfront development.
- The Litigation Division protects and advances the interests of the Northern Territory by providing legal services including documentation and representation in respect of whole of government strategic or sensitive matters.

AGENCY LEGAL SERVICES

Agency Legal Services oversees the contracting out of litigation and commercial legal services to private practitioners.

POLICY

The Legal Policy Division develops, reviews and implements legislative change, advises the Attorney-General and Government on law and justice issues and provides Parliamentary and Ministerial support services to the Minister.

SOLICITOR-GENERAL*

The Solicitor-General is a statutory officer appointed pursuant to the Law Officers Act and is a source of legal advice to the Attorney-General which is separate to, and independent from, Government. The functions of the Solicitor-General include:

- providing legal representation for the Northern Territory of Australia and for other persons as requested by the Attorney-General;
- performing other duties of counsel as directed by the Attorney-General; and
- exercising powers and performing functions conferred on the Solicitor-General by any law of the Northern Territory or the Commonwealth.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS*

The Director of Public Prosecutions acts independently and reports separately to the Attorney-General pursuant to section 33 of the Director of Public Prosecutions Act. The Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions initiates, prepares and conducts criminal prosecutions on behalf of the Crown before the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, the Supreme Court of the Northern Territory and the High Court of Australia and provides support to victims, witnesses and their families.

COURT SUPPORT SERVICES

Courts Services provides judicial support services to the Courts to enable the delivery of justice to the community.

HIGHER COURT SERVICES

Higher Court services provide:

- support services to the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeal and the Court of Criminal Appeal;
- case processing by the registries;
- caseload management and enforcement of judgements of the Courts through the Sheriff's Office;
- jury management;
- library services; and
- custodial services.

LOWER COURT SERVICES

Lower Court services provides support services to the:

- Court of Summary Jurisdiction;
- Local Court;
- Small Claims Court;
- Juvenile Court;
- Work Health Court;
- Office of the Coroner;
- Mental Health Review Tribunal; and
- Lands and Mining Tribunal.

Services include case processing, appropriate case flow management and enforcement of judgements of the Court, Tribunal or other statutory offices, in all Courthouses including premises designated for Circuit Courts in regional and remote communities.

COMMUNITY JUSTICE CENTRE

The Community Justice Centre provides an alternative to legal action by offering a fast, free and easy to use mediation service to the community.

OFFICE OF THE TERRITORY CORONER*

The role of the Territory Coroner is governed by the Coroners Act. The Coroner oversees and coordinates all coronial services throughout the Northern Territory and ensures, on behalf of the community, that all deaths and suspected deaths over which a coroner has jurisdiction are thoroughly investigated.

The Coroner's role is to enquire into the circumstances surrounding all "reportable" deaths and to:

- determine the identity of the deceased.
- determine the time, place, cause and manner of death.
- comment on matters, including public health, safety or the administration of justice connected with the death.

In addition to deaths, a Coroner may inquire into disasters where public safety is substantially endangered.

MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW TRIBUNAL*

The Tribunal is established under the Mental Health and Related Services Act and is an independent statutory body that has the power to make decisions about the care and treatment of people who have a mental illness or mental disturbance.

The majority of Tribunal hearings are held to decide whether a person needs to be treated as an involuntary patient, either in hospital or in the community, in accordance with the Act. Decisions made by the Tribunal are enforceable by law.

The Tribunal sits as a 3-member panel. It comprises a legal member (a qualified lawyer or magistrate), a medical member (a qualified psychiatrist), and a member with special interest or expertise in the area of mental health, who represents the general community.

LANDS AND MINING TRIBUNAL*

The Lands and Mining Tribunal is an independent statutory body established under the Lands and Mining Tribunal Act. The Tribunal currently has jurisdiction in respect of compulsory land acquisitions made under the Lands Acquisition Act 1978. The Tribunal is also the ultimate appeal body for appeals under the Planning Act.

FINES RECOVERY UNIT

The objective of the Fines Recovery Unit is to provide a cost efficient recovery service and to ensure that Court imposed fines and infringement notices are complied with. The aim of the Unit is to reduce the number of fine defaulters who are imprisoned.

The Unit manages all aspects of fine recovery including the taking of payments, the making of time to pay arrangements and providing information to the public about the enforcement when no other solution can be found. These enforcement orders range from licence and registration suspension through to civil enforcement and community work orders.

CORRECTIONAL SERVICES

As part of the criminal justice system, and in partnership with the community, Northern Territory Correctional Services (NTCS) contributes to individual and community safety by:

- providing for the safe care and custody of prisoners and detainees and supporting strategies that contribute to a reduction in their likelihood of re-offending on release;
- managing orders of the courts and Parole Board by effective supervision and by encouraging clients to address issues that lead to offending;
- providing assessments and reports to the courts and the Parole Board to assist with effective sentencing and enhance judicial decision-making processes, and
- ensuring that a range of rehabilitation and reparation programs are available to sentenced prisoners, community-based clients and juvenile detainees which encourage them to become socially responsible members of the community.

The units within Correctional Services are:

- Custodial Services

Darwin Correctional Centre is a multi-classification prison with a capacity for 400 prisoners, with facilities for housing remand and sentenced adult males and adult females. A range of intervention, educational, vocational and offending behaviour programs are delivered to offenders. It also holds illegal immigrants and is generally the processing point for those subject to deportation on behalf of the Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs.

Alice Springs Correctional Centre is the Territory's principal maximum security facility with a capacity for 400 prisoners, eighty four of which are in the low security Cottages located outside the main fence. It has facilities for housing male and female prisoners of all security ratings and delivers a range of intervention, educational, vocational and offending behaviour programs to offenders.

- Community Corrections

Community Corrections provides administrative support and secretariat services to a number of statutory Boards and Committees, including the Parole Board of the Northern Territory, Juvenile Justice Boards of Management; and Community Work Advisory Committees .

Community Corrections administers the following programs: Bail Assessment and Supervision, Court Services, Community Work Orders, Home Detention, Juvenile Approved Programs, Parole and Probation and is also responsible for the training and monitoring of Community Work Order supervisors.

Correctional Services operates three juvenile detention centres: the Don Dale Juvenile Detention Centre, the Alice Springs Juvenile Holding Centre and the Wilderness Camp at Wildman River.

- Juvenile Justice

The Don Dale Juvenile Detention Centre is a medium to high security institution with capacity for up to 25 juveniles of both sexes. It is the main centre for the detention of juveniles within the Northern Territory and operates a structured program of behavioural and case management in support of offender rehabilitation that includes post release options.

The Wildman River Wilderness Work Camp is a low security facility with capacity for 20 male detainees and offers case management in support of offender rehabilitation. This facility is not currently in operation.

The Alice Springs Juvenile Holding Centre is a medium to high security institution with capacity of up to 10 juveniles of either sex. It is designed for use as a short-term holding/remand centre for up to four days.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION COMMISSION*

The Northern Territory Anti-Discrimination Commission promotes equality of opportunity in the Northern Territory by protecting people from unlawful discrimination and from sexual harassment. The Commission also provides community education which aims to improve community understanding of discrimination, equal opportunity and harassment issues.

The Anti-Discrimination Commission is an independent statutory authority which aims to eliminate discrimination and promote equal opportunity and human rights.

REGISTRAR-GENERAL

The Registrar-General (Land Titles Office) is appointed pursuant to the Registration Act. Registrar of Births, Deaths & Marriages is appointed under the Birth, Deaths & Marriages Registration Act.

The Office:

- maintains a secure system of Torrens title including search facilities;
- maintains information about all interests in land including units plan subdivision and land titles;
- registers and issues certificates in relation to births, deaths and marriages, adoptions and changes of name; and
- provides statistical services for media and government research.

Please note that the Land Titles Office is open to the public and searches may be conducted for a fee. The Office of Births, Deaths and Marriages has a very strict access policy. Details about the policy may be obtained by calling 8999 6090.

PUBLIC TRUSTEE

The Public Trustee is appointed pursuant to the Public Trustee Act. The Office:

- administers the estates of deceased persons;
- administers trust accounts which have been established:-
 - through the Courts;
 - as payouts from motor vehicle accidents;
 - as beneficial legacies to minors;
 - as a result of Aged and Infirm Persons Property Orders.
- takes will instructions and drafts wills;
- drafts Deeds for enduring Powers of Attorney and administers those accounts where the Public Trustee is appointed as Attorney;
- administers funds and assets resulting from the responsibilities under the Criminal Property Forfeiture Act.

CONSUMER AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS

The Commissioner of Consumer Affairs reports separately to the Minister pursuant to section 12 of the Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act.

Consumer and Business Affairs provides a regulatory framework where the community is informed on consumer rights and responsibilities and promotes responsible business conduct. The Office of Consumer and Business Affairs includes the following:

Consumer Affairs protects and promotes consumers' rights to safety, freedom of choice, information and a fair hearing whilst providing a range of services to the community to achieve a fair and equitable marketplace for consumers and traders.

Fair Trading and Investigation Officers educate consumers and traders about their rights and responsibilities and also provide dispute resolution and conciliation services.

Business Affairs administers the Business Names Act including maintaining the Business Names Register, providing advice on suitability of names and compliance issues.

Business Affairs officers also register and monitor Incorporated Associations and Co-operatives.

The Property Agents Licensing Group is responsible for the licensing, regulation and monitoring of activities within the real estate, conveyancing and auctioneer industries to ensure statutory compliance. The Group also provides secretariat services to the Agents Licensing Board.

OFFICE OF CRIME PREVENTION

The role of the Office of Crime Prevention is to act as the 'lead agency' for driving crime prevention, both for Government and the community across the Northern Territory. The major functions are to:

- provide evidence based advice to Government and the community;
- develop and support effective crime prevention activities; and
- support community partnerships and initiatives.

The Office of Crime Prevention administers two grant schemes. The Northern Territory Crime Prevention Grant Scheme provides $400,000 each year to community groups for crime prevention activities. The Community Safety Plan Implementation Grant Program provides $350,000 annually to Regional and Indigenous Crime Prevention Councils to implement approved community safety plans.

The Research and Statistics team independently collect, analyse and collate crime and criminal justice statistics.

The Policy and Community Liaison team stimulate and sustain community involvement in crime prevention.

CORPORATE AND STRATEGIC SERVICES

Corporate and Strategic Services delivers corporate systems that effectively support core business and service delivery objectives by being competitive in performance and cost, responsive to changing needs, and accountable for results. It provides cost effective and efficient services to the Agency through the following sections; Human Resources, Finance and Asset Services and Information Services.

OFFICE OF THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER*

The Office of the Information Commissioner promotes fairness and justice in the way that government organisations grant access to information and protect the privacy of personal information they hold.

The Information Commissioner reports separately to the Minister pursuant to section 98 of the Information Act.

NOTE:

* Statutory offices, whilst they are reported within this Information Statement, are independent of the Department as stipulated by their respective Acts.
