

LICENSING AND REGULATION

Responsible Service Of Alcohol Course

Applicants / Nominees may be required by the Commission to undertake a Responsible Service of Alcohol / Patron Care course. The primary purpose of the course is to ensure that licensees are aware of responsible serving practices and assist in discouraging the irresponsible or excessive supply and consumption of liquor within the Northern Territory.

The Responsible Service of Alcohol Certificate should accompany the Application Forms or, if not completed, proof of enrolment in the next available course should be provided. Failure to provide this documentation could lead to your application being refused.

The following organisations provide Responsible Service of Alcohol / Patron Care training courses:
