Agents Licensing Act and Agents Licensing Regulations

The Agents Licensing Act and Agents Licensing Regulations regulate people who conduct real estate transactions, including property management and body corporate management, certain business transactions and conveyancing transactions.

The primary objective of the Act is to protect consumers of real estate, business broking and conveyancing services from agent misconduct or negligence. The Act seeks to achieve this through legislating that agents be licensed, accountable and meet certain standards of professional competence.

Auctioneers Act

The Auctioneers Act regulates sales by auction.
