

LICENSING, REGULATION AND ALCOHOL STRATEGY

Where You Can and Can't Drink

From August 1 2007 public areas in Alice Springs will be off-limits for drinking alcohol.

That means, you can't drink alcohol in public parks, streets, the river bed or the mall – basically any public area within the boundaries of the following declared area:

- North to near the Motor Vehicle Registry;
- East to include Ross Highway and the former Chateau Hornsby;
- South to the Adelaide turnoff; and
- West to include White Gums and Ilparpa.

This entire area is now called a Public Restricted Area.

If you're unsure about whether you can drink alcohol somewhere contact Licensing and Regulation, Department of Justice on (08) 89518452.

Special occasions

For those seeking to hold an event or function in a public area, there are options with special one-off permits available to allow for drinking alcohol for the occasion. See the related fact sheet "Events and Functions in Alice Springs" for more information on the permits.

Where you can drink

These are the places where you can drink without a permit:

- licensed and private premises (homes)
- the picnic area at the Telegraph Station Reserve
