

LICENSING, REGULATION AND ALCOHOL STRATEGY

Events and Functions in Alice Springs

From August 1 2007 public areas in Alice Springs will be off-limits for drinking alcohol.

This ban applies within the boundaries of the following declared area:

- North to near the Motor Vehicle Registry;
- East to include Ross Highway and the former Chateau Hornsby;
- South to the Adelaide turnoff; and
- West to include White Gums and Ilparpa.

This entire area is now called a Public Restricted Area.

However, special occasions still can be celebrated with alcohol as long as you have a permit. (Note: Alcohol can be consumed at the picnic area at the Telegraph Station without a permit.)

Special occasions and permits

From public festivals, community and sporting events to weddings, fundraising activities and street parties, events and functions can still take place in public places.

The organisers of such events can apply to the Licensing Commission for a permit that allows alcohol to be drunk in a public restricted area for the event or function.

Permits will not be granted to minors.
