

LICENSING, REGULATION AND ALCOHOL STRATEGY

How to Get Photo ID

Photo ID is needed to buy alcohol from all licensed stores and public hotel takeaway outlets in Alice Springs.

The ID system forms part of the Alice Springs Alcohol Management Plan and aims to reduce the supply of alcohol in Alice Springs and the level of anti-social behaviour caused through excessive drinking.

It is a genuine attempt to target problem drinkers and will assist licensees to comply with alcohol restrictions and other legislative requirements.

The photo ID system reads many different types of identification cards including:

- driver's licence
- passport
- Tangentyere Council card
- 18+ card
- other forms of photographic identification as approved by the Director of Licensing.

The system also recognises a range of national identity cards from over 50 countries.

Your ID must show your photo, your name and your date of birth.

Acceptable forms of photo ID can be obtained from:

- The Motor Vehicle Registry Office
- Tangentyere Council.

You may need to obtain a birth certificate from the Office of Births, Deaths and Marriages before ID can be issued. If this is the case, allow more time to get photo ID.
