

Portrait of a Senior Territorian Art Award

7 - 28 October 2009

Parliament House, Darwin

Dr Al Strangeways, Alice Springs – 'Willie Dugald Beattie' Winner 2008 Portrait of a Senior Territorian Art Award.

The Northern Territory Government acknowledges the significant and valuable contribution that senior Territorians make to our community with the 'Portrait of a Senior Territorian Art Award'. The exhibition highlights the achievements of older Territorians and encourages excellence in artistic expression.

An Acquisition Award of $5,000 is being offered for the winning original portrait of one or more senior Territorians. A People's Choice Award of $1,000 is also being offered for the artwork that receives the highest number of votes from the public.

Entries are invited from a broad cross-section of the Territory community, including senior Territorians.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

ELIGIBILITY

1. The Award is open to all Northern Territory residents of any age.
2. Entry forms must be received by close of business, Tuesday 1st September 2009.

THE WORK

3. All portraits must be an original work of the entrant and completed within 2 years prior to the exhibition.
4. Only 1 entry per artist is allowed.
5. Works previously submitted to the Portrait of a Senior Territorian exhibition will not be accepted; this also applies to previously submitted works that have been reworked or retouched.
6. All work must be of 1 or more senior Territorians aged 60 years or over.
7. Accepted portrait mediums are oils, acrylic, watercolour, or other mixed media (meaning a variation of oil, acrylic and watercolours). Portraits may be deemed ineligible for the use of any other media.
8. Photographic works, including digital images and prints, will not be accepted
9. All works must be a picture of a person or a representation of a person painted from life.
10. Size of the work must not be larger than 150cm (h) x 100cm (w) or 120cm (h) x 120cm (w).
11. The works must be essentially two dimensional in nature suitable for hanging on a wall.
12. The work must be ready for hanging and presentation with hanging wire and identity label on the back with the artist's name, contact phone number, title of work, the subject's name and age.
13. The artist must provide a statement of 100 words or less about the subject of the work and a brief resume about their arts practice.

SELECTION CRITERIA

14. The organiser reserves the right not to exhibit any work which, because of its construction, (eg bulk, weight, delicate or dangerous nature) cannot be exhibited safely.
15. Appropriate archival materials will be taken into account by the judges of the Acquisition Award. Any works deemed to need excessive ongoing maintenance will not be considered for the Acquisition Award.
16. No correspondence will be entered into concerning the judges' decisions.

COPYRIGHT & REPRODUCTION

17. The artist remains the copyright owner of the work and will be acknowledged as the creator of the work at all times.
18. The artist will allow their work to be reproduced for the exhibition catalogue; and for the purposes of promotion, news reporting and review from the date of submission until the collection of the work. The artwork may also be documented for archival and educational purposes.
19. An electronic version of the catalogue will be made available on the Portrait of a Senior Territorian Art Award internet site(s). Images within the catalogue will appear at a very low resolution. Artists may choose whether or not to have an image of their work published on the Internet by indicating at the appropriate tick box on the entry form.
20. The winning works may be reproduced to promote the 2010 Portrait of a Senior Territorian Art Award with the permission of the artist and upon payment of an appropriate copyright licence fee.

PRIZE AWARDS

21. The $5,000 Acquisition Award is offered in exchange for the winning artwork. The work will be selected by a panel of judges and will become the property of the Government House Foundation. The Acquisition Award will be presented at the opening of the exhibition to the winning artist or their authorised representative.
22. Artwork not available for sale will not be eligible for the Acquisition Award.
23. Any artwork priced above the value of the Acquisition Award ($5,000) will not be considered for the acquisition award unless specifically stated and signed by the entrant on the entry form.
24. The $1,000 People's Choice Award (a non-acquisitive award) will be decided by public ballot. The winner of the People's Choice Award will be the artist who attracts the highest number of votes. The winning artist will be announced after the close of the exhibition and payment will be made within a week of the end of the exhibition.
25. GST registered artists will be required to provide a tax invoice for the receipt of any prize or fee. Non registered artists will have to complete an ATO Statement by a supplier (reason for not quoting an ABN to an enterprise) form in order to receive full payment of any prize or fee.

INSURANCE

26. The artist is responsible for insurance of the work.
27. All care will be taken, however the organiser assumes no responsibility for work entered in the exhibition.

FREIGHT

28. Freight to and from the exhibition is the responsibility of the artist.

DELIVERY & COLLECTION OF WORK

29. The deadline for delivery of works is 4:30pm on Wednesday 23rd September 2009.
30. Works must be delivered to the Security Desk, Parliament House, between 10am – 4:30pm on Wednesday 23rd September 2009. A receipt for works will be provided.
31. All works will be held for the duration of the exhibition and will not be released under any circumstances.
32. All work not freighted must be collected from the Security Desk, Parliament House, between 10am – 4:30pm on Friday 30th October 2009. A receipt for works must be produced.

PANEL OF JUDGES

33. A panel of judges for the Acquisition Award will be determined closer to the exhibition date.
