Arts NT News

Program Manager Appointed

We are pleased to announce that Hania Radvan who has been Acting Program Manager has been appointed to the position.

Calling for Expressions of Interest to be an Exhibition Attendant at the 53rd Venice Biennale 2009

Closing 16 January 2009.

The Australia Council in partnership with Arts NT is again offering a professional development opportunity for an Exhibition Attendant from the NT to work at the Venice Biennale 2009 as part of the Australian Exhibition Attendants at the Venice Biennale 2009 program.

This professional development opportunity will enable the participating individuals to experience a wide range of contemporary art practice and stimulation to think of new ways of presenting contemporary Australian art and ideas for future projects. The selected attendants will undertake management and security of the Pavilion at Giardini and at Ludoteca, guide groups through the exhibition, assist VIP visitors, keep attendance records and coordinate staffing and sales etc and be required to be in Venice for a minimum of six weeks, with a maximum stay of three months.

A shortlist of up to three candidates from the NT will be forwarded by Arts NT to the Australia Council, who will conduct interviews with shortlisted applicants before making a selection. For more information about the selection criteria please contact the Project and Communications Officer at:

General News

Gurumul named the Territory Australian of the Year

Arnhem Land singer-songwriter Geoffrey Gurumul Yunupingu has been named the Northern Territory's Australian of the Year. In the same week Gurumul has been presented with three awards from the Association of Independent Record Labels - Best Independent Release, Best Blues/Roots Album and Best New Australian Independent Artist. This is on top of his success at the ARIA and Deadly awards earlier this year. Gurumul will now be part of the national selection process for the Australian of the Year awards to be announced on January 26.

Draft children in art protocols released -13 November 2008

The Australia Councils set of protocols address the depiction of children in artworks, exhibitions and publications that receive government funding.

The draft protocols include an overview of applicable state and territory laws and a set of reasonable minimum standards which artists must follow in order to receive Federal Government funding.

Australia Council chief executive officer Kathy Keele said that the draft protocols underline the organisation's commitment to helping the arts community understand their legal obligations and propose sensitive and responsible steps for artists dealing with children in their art practice. The draft protocol is available from:

Charles See Kee Awards

Closing 19 December

The Charles See Kee Awards, were established by the Northern Territory Government in 2004. The awards recognise and celebrate people, organisations and initiatives that have made a valuable contribution towards the advancement of multiculturalism in the Northern Territory. The criteria for these awards are deliberately broad because the advancement of multiculturalism in the Northern Territory can be achieved in many ways by individuals, organisations or through specific initiatives. The Charles See Kee Awards provide an opportunity to showcase and recognise achievements and contributions in promoting our harmonious and multicultural society. For more information contact:

ABC Artpost

Ongoing

Regional Arts Australia has a new partnership with ABC television - Artpost. Artpost is an opportunity for all artists in Australia, working in any medium, to tell the world about their work by uploading a little movie or still photograph montage about their work. ABC Television and Radio will be using the website as a tool to find good stories. The process is very simple – all the tools you need and a tutorial are on to the site, and have a look at the posts that are already on the map. Please post a profile yourself, or track down the artists in your town and create one about them. Contact Jennifer Collins if you have any further questions:

Agent looking for NT talent

David Armstrong of Studio Australia is offering the opportunity for NT actors to be considered for representation by his agency. Studio Australia is based in Cairns but is interested in representing actors across the north. David contacted DTC last month in relation to casting for an ABC program and, though no-one he spoke to was actually cast, he is nonetheless interested in having actors from the NT on his books. David is interested in speaking to actors and he informs us that there would be no charge for actors to be admitted to the agency's books. If actors obtain work through the agency, they would be charged a standard 15%.
