

Northern Territory Arts Grants Program

RAF - Acquittal Form

Rapid Response Scheme

It is a condition of receiving a Regional Arts Fund grant that you provide an acquittal report for the funded activity. The report enables Arts NT to fulfil its obligations of accountability to the Australian Government and the Northern Territory Government.

The acquittal report must be submitted within 4 weeks of activity completion and consists of:

- an artistic report; and
- a financial report.

'Useful Tips to Write Acquittals' are available in the grants section of the Arts NT website at www.arts.nt.gov.au

Please send your completed acquittal report to Arts NT, PO Box 496, PALMERSTON NT 0831

Before sending, please confirm that:

- You have verified your acquittal report against the information provided in your original application.
- You have completed all sections of the acquittal form.
- Your report is typed in a minimum of 10 point font, printed in black ink and is on white A4 paper, not bound or in a folder.
- You have kept a copy of your acquittal report.
- You have signed the acquittal report.

- Tick if you would like to receive the fortnightly Arts NT Ebulletin for updates, news and opportunities relevant to the arts in the Northern Territory.

SECTION 2(a) ARTISTIC REPORT - EVALUATION

This section may also be completed in your own format on plain paper, however please ensure that you address all questions and supply the required information and statistics.

Q1. What was your activity?

Please describe, in no more than ½ a page, what was undertaken as a result of funding provided to you. List any changes to the activity compared to your original application.

Q2. Did the activity meet your objectives?

Please describe in no more than ½ a page if objectives outlined in your original application were met.

Q3. What were the successes and challenges?

Please describe in no more than ½ a page. Specify if there is anything you would do differently next time?

Q4. If your project involved Indigenous artists, cultural content or communities please comment on the consultation, production process and protocols outlined in Section 5 of your original application.

Q5. If your project involved working with anyone under the age of 18, please confirm that you complied with the Australia Council's Protocols for working with children in art, the Northern Territory Care and Protection of Children Act as well as any other relevant state or territory laws, and that all the consents, permits and permissions required were obtained.

The Northern Territory Government supports the Protocols for working with children in art, which were adopted by the Australia Council for the Arts under the direction of the Federal Government. The protocols apply to all Arts NT grant recipients from 1 January 2009.

- My project did not involve working with children under 18.
- My project did involve working with children under 18 and I am aware of, and fulfilled, the special responsibilities and legal requirements associated with working with children in art as articulated in the Australia Council's Protocols for working with children in art and the Northern Territory Care and Protection of Children Act.

SECTION 2(b) ARTISTIC REPORT - DOCUMENTATION

You need to support your report with illustrative visual and/or audio material.

This can include photos of you and / or your work at the event / activity and documentation of outcomes. If the material is of good quality, Arts NT may wish to use it for promotional or reporting purposes such as website, newspaper and brochures if permission by the artist has been provided. Please indicate if you are interested for the included documentation to be considered to promote the arts in the Northern Territory and nationally.
