

MEDIA RELEASE

Popular Attractions Reopen

The Department of Natural Resources, Environment and the Arts advises several of its Top End attractions closed yesterday due to Ex-Tropical Cyclone Monica have reopened today.

These attractions include the Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory, Lyons Cottage, Fannie Bay Gaol, the Australian Pearling Exhibition, the George Brown Darwin Botanic Gardens, Window on the Wetlands and Leanyer Recreation Park.

Attractions that remain closed until further notice include Fogg Dam Conservation Reserve, Berry Springs Nature Park and the Territory Wildlife Park.

All facilities at Litchfield National Park are open except for Wangi Falls, which is closed for swimming.

The public is advised to refer to the website below and phone ahead before planning a trip to parks and reserves in the Darwin region.

<http://www.nt.gov.au/nreta/parks/find/index.html>

Ends

Issued: 1.30pm Wednesday, 26 April 2006