Stakeholders of the Draft Alice Springs Water Resource Strategy, may include:

Resource Users	Public Interest Groups	Industry associations	Government decision makers	Community Planning Committees	Extension/ advisory services	Scientists & consultants	Upstream or downstream interests	Concerned Members of the Public
Power Water Corporation	Lhere Artepe Aboriginal Corporation	NT Horticultural Assoc	Power Water Corporation	Urban Water Reference Group	Centralian Land Management Assoc	CSIRO Sustainable Ecosystems	Deep Well Station	Interested public members
Alice Springs Town Council (thru PWC)	Arid Lands Environment Centre	NT Table Grape Producers Association	NRETA - Natural Systems	Alice in Ten	Landcare Council NT	Desert Knowledge Australia	Orange Creek Station	Finke Desert Race Committee
Undoolya Station	Alice Springs Rural Area Residents Association	NT Cattlemen's Association	NRETA - NRM	Regional Development Board of Central Australia	Greening Australia NT	Centre for Sustainable Arid Towns	Arid Gold Date Farm	Show Grounds
NT Airports	Threatened Species Network	NT Chamber of Commerce and Industry	NRETA – Biodiversity Services	INRMP/LCCNT	Charles Darwin University - Horticulture		Hugh River Holdings	White Gums Residents
Alice Springs Turf Club Inc	Tangentyere Council Inc	Central Australian Tourism Industry Association	NRETA – Environment & Heritage	Waste Management Committee	Australian Gov. Rivercare Facilitator		Ooramina Bush Camp
Alice Springs Golf Club	Lower Todd Landcare Group	NT Minerals Council	NRETA - Parks Management	Regional Weeds Advisory Committee			Leudi Grapes
Joint Defence Facility Pine Gap	Illparpa Landcare Group		NRETA - Lands & Planning
Temple Bar			DBIRD
Oldfield			Dept of Community Dev, Sport & Cultural Affairs
Ingeweke Resource Centre (replacing Arrente Council) serv. Iwapataka			Dept of Chief Minister – Alice in 10
Brewer Estate			Aboriginal Areas Protection Authority
Individual agricultural licensees			Alice Springs Town Council
Individual RSD & Industrial licensees			Central Land Council
Bond Springs Station								