CLMA: We are grateful for the assistance provided by Andrea Johnson and Dionne Walsh, along with past help from Will Dobbie.

Landholder consultation: Helen Neave has initiated landholder consultation processes for the resource assessment of the Burt Plain Bioregion.

Images: We are grateful to many people and organisations for the use of images for this report. We thank the Arid Zone Research Institute (AZRI) Library, Nature Focus, South Australian Department for Environment and Heritage (SADEH), Queensland National Parks and Wildlife Service (QNPWS), Birds Australia and Oxford University Press, Australian Government – ACRES, Geoscience Australia, David Albrecht, Michael Barritt, Joe Benshemesh, Kym Brennan, Graeme Chapman, Jodie Clarkson, R.C. Darken, Will Dobbie, Mike Fleming, Greg Fyfe, John Gavin, Mike Gillam, Alan Ginns, P. Marsack, Steve McAlpin, Damian Milne, I. Morris, Helen Neave, Nick Pyke, D. Roff, Ted Sandery and Gary Weir.

We'd especially like to thank the pastoralists of the Burt Plain Bioregion. We have written to all pastoralists, and have made personal contact with several properties where we have begun our wildlife surveys. We thank you all for your interest, support and co-operation, without which, projects such as this bioregional resource assessment would not be possible.
