

Tax file number (TFN) notification form

Do you want to pay more tax than you have to?

If your answer to the above question is NO, it is vital that you provide your tax file number to your superannuation fund.

From 1 July 2007, the Australian Government's Better Super legislation states that if you do not provide your Tax File Number (TFN) to your superannuation fund, you are prohibited from making non-concessional (voluntary, after tax) contributions and any concessional (pre-tax) contributions you make will be taxed at 46.5%.

The collection of TFNs by superannuation funds is authorised by Australian Government taxation laws and the Privacy Act 1988. The quotation of your TFN is voluntary. It is not an offence to decline quotation of your TFN. However, if you do not provide it, the current consequences are:

- you will be unable to make non-concessional contributions to your superannuation fund;
- you may become liable for tax of 46.5% on any concessional contributions such as salary sacrifice and employer contributions; and
- any benefit which may become payable to you may be taxed at the top marginal rate of 46.5%.

If you require further information, please contact the NT Superannuation Office. The Australian Taxation Office Superannuation Helpline number (13 10 20) will also be able to help you with any queries.

If you have not already provided your TFN and you wish to do so, please complete this form and return it to the NT Superannuation Office. Alternatively, you may phone the NT Superannuation Office to advise your TFN.
