Warning

Under section 59 of the NT Taxation (Administration) Act, persons who falsely declare the sale price and or the market value of a vehicle are liable to a penalty of $5,000.

The Courts Decide Ownership Disputes

Before buying, satisfy yourself that there are no outstanding loans on the vehicle (ring REVS) and that the receiver (seller) has the right to sell the vehicle, especially if it is registered in a business name. To transfer, you must first establish your identity and residency (if non-resident, please contact MVR). An NT driver licence will usually provide this evidence. If you send someone to MVR to transfer the registration on your behalf, that person must have your written authorisation and be able to prove their identity.
