

Road Works

Due to urgent repair works, there will be no left-hand turn into Goyder Road off Stuart Highway at Parap, heading out of the city.

Motorists are advised that they should detour via Parap Road.

The Department apologises for any inconvenience caused and says the intersection should be back to normal in the next few days.

12/1/07

For further information;

David Wright

899-9828