

CPV11 Minibus Licence

Effective Date: 23 March 2006

Introduction

- A Minibus is a vehicle approved by the Director of Commercial Passenger (Road) Transport that is fitted, equipped or constructed to carry 9 to 15 passengers.
- A Minibus is used to carry passengers for the purpose of hire or reward with the services of a driver.

Requirements

To Own/Operate a Minibus

- To own/operate or register a Minibus, you must be an Accredited Operator under the Commercial Passenger (Road) Transport Act. Once accredited, you are then required to apply for a Minibus licence.
- To apply for Operator Accreditation to operate a Minibus, complete the application form CPVF01, and all other requirements as laid out in the application, then submit at your local MVR Office with the prescribed fee.
- Before a Minibus licence can be issued you must have your vehicle checked and approved by an MVR Transport Inspector and pay the prescribed fee (see page 2 of this bulletin).
- You must keep records relating to the operation of the Minibus as set out in the current Minibus Regulations.

To Drive a Minibus

- To drive a Minibus for the purpose of hire or reward, you must:
 - (a) be the holder of a current drivers licence (usually a 'LR' class)
 - (b) be the holder of a licence to drive Commercial Passenger Vehicles ("h" endorsement)
 - (c) have successfully completed formal driver training, and
 - (d) be the holder of a current CPV ID card with Minibus endorsed against the ID Card.
- Any person who drives a vehicle that is registered as a Commercial Passenger Vehicle must have zero blood alcohol level.

Operating Conditions

- When applying for a Minibus licence the person applying for that licence must be the same as the person who owns the vehicle.
- If a Minibus licence is expired for a period of more than 3 months it will be considered cancelled.
- There is provision to place a Minibus licence on hold for an approved period (conditions apply).
- A Minibus is permitted to stand for hire in designated Minibus ranks.
- A Minibus is permitted to respond to hails, eg. if a potential customer waves you down from the footpath you can pull over and pick that person up providing it is safe to do so.

- The annual fee for a Minibus licence varies from region to region.

Darwin	$16,000	Katherine	$9,000
Alice Springs	$13,000	Gove	$5,000
